OFFICE DEPOT FOUNDATION DONATES 2,250 BACKPACKS
IN DENVER; GIVES CHILDREN TOOLS TO SUCCEED IN SCHOOL

2009 National Backpack Program Celebrates 2 Millionth Backpack Milestone

Denver, Colo., August 5, 2009 – With the beginning of the new school year fast approaching, the Office Depot Foundation announced today that it will donate more than 2,250 backpacks to non-profit organizations and schools in the Denver area to help children succeed in the classroom.

The donations will be made during a special “Back-to-School Backpack Celebration” beginning at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday (8/6) at the Office Depot store located at 770 South Colorado Blvd. in Glendale. This year, the Office Depot Foundation is marking an extraordinary milestone by donating its two millionth backpack since the beginning of its National Backpack Program in 2001.

During the Denver event, backpacks will be donated to the following designated recipients:

- Denver Area Youth Services (D.A.Y.S.)
- Denver Children's Home
- Denver Public Schools
- Girls Incorporated of Metro Denver
- Metro Denver Partners
- SafeHouse Denver
- Glendale YMCA
- Cherry Creek Schools

Special guests scheduled to participate in the presentation ceremony include:

- Larry Harte, Mayor, City of Glendale, and Executive Director, Greater Glendale Chamber of Commerce

- State Representative Mary Todd, also representing the National Foundation for Women Legislators (NFWL)

“The Office Depot Foundation believes strongly that we are helping children to build self-confidence, boost self-esteem and achieve greater success in the classroom – all as a result of being well-prepared for school,” states Mary Wong, President of the independent foundation that serves as the primary charitable giving arm of Office Depot (NYSE: ODP). “We are extremely pleased to be able to donate our two millionth backpack at a time when so many children and families are dealing with the impact of the economic downturn.”

While the scale of the Office Depot Foundation National Backpack Program is global, it makes a difference on an individual level for every child it reaches. “The backpack represents to these kids that they are part of the group – that someone cares about them and that the world is going to give them something... and they are not going to be left out, says Dr. Jerry Yager, executive director of the Denver Children’s Home.

To distribute the backpacks, the Foundation is hosting 25 “Back-to-School Backpack Celebrations” in cities across the United States and Canada – five of which feature special appearances by Tony Stewart, driver of the No. 14 Office Depot®/Old Spice Chevrolet Impala SS in the NASCAR Sprint Cup Series. Thousands of backpacks also are being donated by Office Depot stores in hundreds of local communities and in collaboration with the Office Depot Business Solutions Division in selected cities.

Thousands more are being distributed through the Office Depot Foundation’s partnerships with eight national non-profit organizations – including the Tony Stewart Foundation, the National Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) Association, City Year, Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America (CADCA), Feed The Children, the Kids In Need Foundation, Nourish America and the National Foundation for Women Legislators, whose members will give backpacks to children in all 50 states. For the second consecutive year, backpack donations will be made to children of the Navajo Nation in Arizona and the Rosebud Sioux Tribe in South Dakota.
