

Midwest Flood Disaster Response and Recovery Contacts

As the response to 2008's severe flooding in the Midwest moves to recovery, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security has shared a number of links which might be useful to individuals and businesses that are continuing to deal with the aftermath.

We encourage you to check the following links for the latest information on the Midwest Flood disaster response and recovery efforts.

State of Iowa:

<http://flood2008.iowa.gov/>

Safeguard Iowa Partnership:

<http://www.safeguardiowa.org/>

Donations:

<http://www.aidmatrixnetwork.org/fema/>

FEMA News Room:

<http://www.fema.gov/news/recentnews.fema>

SBA Disaster Assistance:

<http://www.sba.gov/floods/>

IRS Disaster Assistance:

<http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=108362,00.html>

USDA Emergency Preparedness & Response:

http://www.usda.gov/wps/portal/!ut/p/ s.7_0_A/7_0_1OB?navid=SAFETY

GSA Disaster Recovery Schedule:

<http://www.gsa.gov/disasterrecovery>

U.S. Department of Labor Flood Recovery Page:

<http://www.dol.gov/opa/flood-recovery.htm>

In addition, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Business Civic Leadership Center, with the support of the Office Depot Foundation, offers a National Disaster Help Desk for Business. If your business has been affected by a disaster or you want to help others who have been affected, please call 1-888-MY-BIZ-HELP or send e-mail to bclchelpdesk@uschamber.com.